Heritage Institute of Technology was declared winner at Smart Bengal Hakathon 2024

Kolkata,(KCN): A project on 'GlucoVision', done by the students of the second year from the Department of Applied Electronics & Instrumentation Engineering, Heritage Institute of Technology, Kolkata, has been awarded 1st position in 'Smart Bengal Hackathon' (SBH 2024) organized by RCC Institute of Information Technology on 16-17th April at the Institute campus. The Hackathon was supported by Department of Information Technology and Electronics, Government of West Bengal and AICTE as well among other Institutional and Corporate partners. Nearly 2000 proposals were received for the Hackathon, 82 teams were selected for the grand finale and Heritage Institute of Technology was declared as the winner.

A sum of Rs. 18000 was awarded to the winning team.

The winning team of students was guided by Dr. Surajit Bagchi, Professor, Department of Applied Electronics and Instrumentation Engineering, Heritage Institute of Technology.

There are around 20 jury members were involved from the mainframe industries, academic and research institutes like Ericsson India Pvt. Ltd, Cognizant, PWC, CDAC, Digital Data Corporation, Pixel Consultancy, Annalect India, SETU Business School Pvt Ltd, Entiovi Technologies Pvt. Ltd., Websoft IOT etc. for the evaluation process in the grand final round.

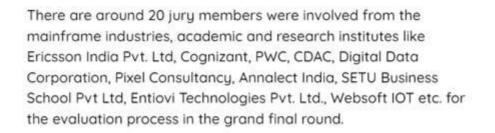

1st Prize Winning Team in the college level event (SBH-Senior) from Heritage Institute of Technology